APPLICATION TO ABANDON A PROJECT

Complete in block capitals. One form per project. Yes, even for the 1,200 eight-bar loops.

PART A — PROJECT DETAILS

Project file name (as saved): _____

Working title: _____

Date started: _____

Date of last "I'll come back to it": _____

Hours spent: _____

Of which choosing a snare: _____

PART B — STAGE REACHED

- ☐ 4-bar loop
- ☐ 8-bar loop
- ☐ 16 bars + "the drop"
- ☐ Full arrangement except the ending
- ☐ Mixed, mastered, never sent
- ☐ Sent, left on read

PART C — REASON FOR ABANDONMENT (tick all that apply)

- ☐ Lost the vibe
- ☐ Heard a better beat on YouTube
- ☐ Plugin crashed, autosave didn't
- ☐ Fell asleep on the keyboard
- ☐ The 808 wouldn't sit
- ☐ Sounds too much like another song
- ☐ Started a new beat "real quick"
- ☐ It was actually hard and I got scared
- ☐ Artist said "make it more hard"
- ☐ Other: _____

PART D — FUTURE OF THE PROJECT

- ☐ I will finish it this week
- ☐ I will finish it this year
- ☐ I'll come back to it (= no)
- ☐ Turn it into a loop kit

PART E — DECLARATION

I declare that the information above is true, that this project was "the one", and that I will not open it again at 3 AM "just to check".

Signature of producer: _____ Witness (the cat): _____

FOR OFFICE USE ONLY

☐ APPROVED ☐ REJECTED: finish it ☐ FORWARDED TO: beat graveyard